Beschreibung

The apartments are set right in the heart of the lively 4th district there is no better place to experience the urban charm of Zurich at first hand. Diverse restaurants, cafes, shops and local pubs are just a few steps away. The legendary Langstrasse with its numerous bars and clubs also lies a short walking distance from the building. Additionally, there are green spaces and small parks in close proximity. What is more, the location offers superb transport links. Right on the doorstep there is a tram stop Bezirksgeb'ude. The railway station Wiedikon can be reached within 2 minutes' walking distance. From here, there are direct connections to the Airport Zurich Kloten (approx. 20 minutes). The main railway station is located 10 minutes away.

We provide the following services: weekly cleaning of the apartment with changes of bed linen and hand towels, final cleaning after departure, wireless Internet and cable TV with international channels all included in the rental price. All ancillary costs are included as well. For an extra charge and depending on the availability, a number of additional services, such as laundry or extra cleaning can be offered. Upon request additional furniture can also be offered, as well as parking spaces (if available). The laundry rooms provide the tenants with washing machines and tumblers free of charge. The apartment is equipped with a modern keyless access system. Tenants will receive the code to the apartment before arrival via SMS or E-mail.

This functional studio offers everything one may expect from a place to live. The open living and sleeping area tempts with a dining table, a wardrobe, as well as flat screen TV. The kitchenette is fully fitted with a glass ceramic stove, microwave with baking and grilling options, coffee maker, as well as pans, crockery and cutlery. The bathroom with a shower offers hand towels, a hair dryer and toiletries. Black leather furniture fills the apartment with an aura of cool elegance.
